Demonstrants : „We are the people“

Original words Günter Schabowski at 09.11.1989

on press conference at eastberlin:

„Private journeys to other countrys will be allowed without any differences according persons or reasons. The allowances will be given immediately“

We changed the world

After 10315 days - history walls away
People went on the street, lessons in history
Banksters crashed all the world
Ain't no shame – sorry's never heard
We should go on the street, lessons in democracy

We changed the world into some different places
Who really knows, do we go a better way;
We took the chance to tear down the iron curtain
Who really knows, do we go a better way ... NOW

Stronger than steal and stone, courage tore the wall down
Revolution on the street – Revolution
Revolution on the street - take your chance and responsibility
We changed the world into another place

Wir sind das Volk

28 Jahre lang hielt der böse Zauberbann
Stahl und Stein, Stacheldraht, eingesperrt im eigenen Land
Banksters crashed unsere Welt, heute zählt nur das Geld Mauerfall, Kapital. Misch Dich ein, es ist Deine Welt

Wir sind das Volk und wir haben mächtig Power
Wenn wir es wollen, dann fällt bald jede Mauer
Du hast ein Herz und Verstand, Du kannst viel geben
Nimm Deine Welt in die Hand, bestimm Dein Leben FREI

In Berlin stand viel auf dem Spiel
und die Welt stand still als die Mauer fiel
Wir sind das Volk, Du und ich
Misch Dich ein, es ist Deine Welt

Revolution on the street, revolution
Take your chance and responsibility
We changed the world into another place ...

20 Years Fall of Berlin Wall

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

„We are the People“ - A powerful shout

With the shouting „Wir sind das Volk“ („We are the people“) on lips couraged eastgerman demonstrators tore down the berlin wall and changed the world. The „Iron Curtain“ fell down.

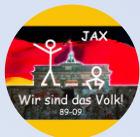

20 years world history in one song

The song „We changed the world“ of the berlin duo JAX brings back atmosphere and emotions of the change of 1989, by the original sounds of demonstrators and the famous sentence of east german politician Günther Schabowski („Private journeys into foreign countrys ... are allowed immediatly“), with a critical eye on today („Banksters crashed all the world“). Even the chancellor of change Helmut Kohl appears again in the song ...great emotions ...

The chilling and extraordinary Crossover Sampler `Project D` brings remixes of the song in different languages (german, english, chinese, farsi) and styles (Pop, Techno, Elektro, Disko) interpreted by international artists living in berlin.

Fall of Berlin Wall, Liberty and People Power get a new actual musical background to remember legend and possibilty of peaceful revolution. A part of the income goes to Amnesty International, to support protection of human rights.

East and West together

Marnie and Andy T., the voices of JAX, both have a very personal connection to the Berlin Wall. Marnie was born 1989 in eastberlin shortly before the wall came down. History let her grow up in one free country. Andy T. knows the wall from many years in former Westberlin. A chilling and powerful musical event of 2 different generations with a critical eye on today.

Tracks / Artists

We changed the world / critical

The english versions asks whether we all go the right way.

Mauer Mix / TechnoArt

The powerful techno-Remix of Marc Lingk is a thrilling peace of art with beat, groove and gothic. Clubby groove of extra class.

Revolution X Remix / The groovevolution

„Hounddog“ Harris and DJ Derezon lead us back to the seventys, when everything seemed to be possible. Revolution to the Groove!

Stacheldraht / Tomorrow

A hard and new techno / experimental mix by the newcomers Napalm & Wagner with modern technosounds and amazing voice performance.

WSDV Farsi / Déjavu

The Farsi-Version picks up the todays actions of spring 2009 in Iran and wants to honor and support the „green movement“, fighting for human rights over there. The situation in Iran seemed to be a partly déjavu of german change in 1989. Iran artists, who must stay anonym to protect home familys, realized this version.

WSDV Chinese / Glückwunsch 走到一起来

The chinese version is a beautiful lovesong (zao dao yi qi lai = Coming together) about two lovers meeting after a very long time. The textversion of the chinese musical student and singer Lin He shows big emotion and love to Berlin, whre she and her singing partner He Bo live and study today. A chinese congratulation to Berlin and the germans for 20 years Fall of Berlin Wall.

Music / language of freedom

`Project D` is symbolizing the `get together` of people, thoughts and styles, which seemed not to fit in the beginning.

Freedom, tolerance and respect
